

WELCOME!!

Thank you for choosing Day-to-Day Dance for your dance education. We want to make the time you spend at our studio as pleasant as possible, therefore, we have created this handbook of policies. Below you will find all the information needed for parents and students as we begin a new season together. Please contact your teacher or the director if you have any questions or concerns. We are here to work with our families to reach their goals and find solutions.

COMMUNICATION

- Class communication is done through email daytodaydance@gmail.com or call (360) 393-3927.

ABSENTEEISM

- No refunds for missed classes or for dropping a class mid-season.
- Make-up classes may be available, but NOT guaranteed. It is the parents/student's responsibility to arrange for a make-up class before the end of the session and is dependent on teacher availability.
- We will refund for the classes that have been paid but did not occur in the event of a mandated closer.

BEHAVIOR POLICY

- Students must come properly dressed and prepared to learn. (Dress Code)
- Students must be prepared for corrections. Teacher gives corrections to help student grow as a dancer.
- Students must show respect to all teachers, staff, and students. Listening ears and keep hands to yourself.
- Students must practice marking dances and combinations as the teacher goes over them. This is a great way to lean combinations and a chance to ask questions.
- No talking allowed during class instruction until teacher opens time up for questions or interactive dance activities. Do not mention time. Thank teacher at the end of class.
- Students must practice at home as well as in class
- Please notify teacher ahead of time if you cannot come to class.

- We have zero-tolerance for any kind of language of disrespect, harassment or bullying toward teacher or other students by student or adult. Such behavior will result in being asked to leave class and assessed for a minimum six-month suspension from Day-to-Day Dance Studio.
- Day-to-Day Dance Studio strives to maintain a pleasant and healthy learning environment. We request that all our parents, students or guests help us achieve this goal by conducting themselves in a safe and considerate manner always.
